Sexual harassment occurs in conducive environments and MONG personnel will deliberately create a non-conducive environment. MONG personnel, especially leaders, are accountable and responsible to prevent sexual harassment. Specifically:
   a. MONG personnel will not subject others to unsolicited and unwelcome sexual advances.
   b. MONG personnel will intercede to stop behavior which others could reasonably interpret as inappropriate, sexual in nature, or sexually harassing.
   c. Leaders, including Full-Time Unit Support (FTUS), will promptly respond to both official sexual harassment complaints and informal complaints.
   d. Leaders, including FTUS, will foster a sexual harassment intolerable work environment.
   e. Units will utilize responsible sponsorship to mentor and insulate junior and other at-risk personnel, especially new unit members, from potential sexual harassment.
   f. Leaders, including FTUS, will discourage after duty-hours activities which tend to provoke inappropriate sexually harassing behavior.

3. Anyone who uses implicit or explicit sexual behavior to control, influence, or affect the career, pay, grade/rank, or position of an individual, engages in sexual harassment.
